

GREG FITZSIMMONS

Biography (9-13-11)

Mixing an incisive wit with scathing sarcasm, Greg Fitzsimmons has achieved success as a stand-up, Emmy Award winning writer and host on both radio and TV. A regular with David Letterman, Conan O'Brien, Jimmy Kimmel, and Jay Leno, Greg has made more than 50 visits to "The Howard Stern Show". He also hosts "The Greg Fitzsimmons Show," on Sirius XM's "Howard 101" and twice a week puts out the hugely popular "FitzDog Radio" Podcast.

Greg will be hosting a new series on The Speed Channel called "Pumped" and is a frequent panelist on "Chelsea Lately". His 2011 book, Dear Mrs. Fitzsimmons, climbed the best-seller charts and garnered outstanding reviews from NPR and Vanity Fair. The audio book will be released this fall.

In his spare time Greg is currently developing pilots for both Nickelodeon and VH1 (where he's made many appearances on "Best Week Ever" and the "I Love the..." series). He has two Half-Hour Specials on Comedy Central, and in 2008 Greg made his entire family proud hosting the 25th Annual "AVN Adult Movie Awards" on Showtime.

Writing credits include HBO's "Lucky Louie", "Cedric the Entertainer Presents," "Politically Incorrect w/ Bill Maher", "The Man Show" and many others. On his mantle beside the four Daytime Emmys he won as a writer and producer on "The Ellen DeGeneres Show" sit "The Jury Award for Best Comedian" from The HBO Comedy Arts Festival and a Cable Ace Award for the MTV game show he hosted called "Idiot Savants".
